

Processing Performance — Averages

Aggregate metrics across the HUBL Engine ingestion pipeline.

AVG ROWS / DOC

3,659

across 9 docs

AVG TIME / DOC

3.5 s

db write

AVG ROWS / SEC

~1,950

throughput

TOTAL ROWS

32,931

ingested sample

About HUBL Engine

HUBL Engine is AICD-10's data ingestion engine — the pipeline responsible for parsing, normalizing, and writing structured records from uploaded source documents into the operational database. The metrics above reflect end-to-end DB-write performance measured from the first to the last row inserted per document.

Headline

Average document processed in 3.5 seconds.

Sustained throughput of ~1,950 rows/second across the sample.